POST DETAILS

Additional Information:
Dublin Oak Academy, Kilcroney Lane, Kilcroney, Bray Co Wicklow which an international Catholic boys' secondary boarding school requires part-time teachers of Maths (16 hours) and Classical Studies, with additional study hall duties. Teachers will be required to teach the Junior Certificate to Ordinary and Higher level.

Dublin Oak incorporates a 21st century group based teaching methodology, therefore prospective candidates need to be comfortable with project based learning, group work, and have excellent classroom management skills. As an international school taking students from many countries, excellent communication skills are required. As the use of technology pervades the school, a high degree of comfort with modern educational software is essential.
