Loreto High School Beaufort's Vision and Aims:

- 1. The person of Jesus Christ is at the heart of a Loreto School and Gospel values permeate the entire school experience.
- In Loreto High School we aim to make our school an educational community where: the system of teaching and learning is such that each girl feels accepted and encouraged as a unique individual, so that her potential as a person is fully realised
- 3. An understanding of the Gospel and its implications for action will be an integral part of the education offered
- 4. There is an awareness and concern for the disadvantaged and underprivileged at local, national and global level
- 5. The school environment fosters self-discipline, a sense of responsibility, honesty, respect for others and the environment, and the ability to interact positively with others
- 6. The school wishes to create an awareness in the pupil of their European identity by inter-cultural exchanges and by educational trips
- 7. The Parents' Association reflects our recognition of the importance of the parents in the effective functioning of the school
- 8. An Association of Loreto Past Pupils reflects the importance of the experience of our past pupils as part of our community.

Date

In Loreto High School we are committed to our vision, aims & mission statement and accordingly are asking that you would agree to the principles outlined in our school's vision & aims as outlined above.
