POST DETAILS

Title: Head of School – The Tuition Centre
Description: About The Tuition Centre

The Tuition Centre is a leading online grinds school dedicated to providing innovative, high-quality online tutoring that enables students to achieve exam success. As The Tuition Centre continues on its ambitious growth journey, we are hiring a head of school who will have operational responsibility for delivering on its growth ambition.

Role Overview

As Head of School at The Tuition Centre, you will assume the role of a strategic general manager, taking overall responsibility for the quality of teaching and learning, marketing, sales, and operations of the school. You will be required to have a keen focus on market growth, identifying new opportunities and geographical expansion. This is a full-time role and the successful candidate will either work remotely or in our Dublin office.

Key Responsibilities

- Quality of Teaching and Learning: Embedding best teaching and learning practices within the school and ensuring that the systems are in place to track student engagement and learning.
- Strategic Relationship Management: Liaising with the State Examinations Commission and professional teacher bodies as appropriate to ensure our services are appropriately recognised. Leveraging your network of teachers to enable The Tuition Centre hire student-centric, subject-matter and exam-focused expert teachers.
- Raising Profile: Managing the public face of The Tuition Centre and communicating the value of what we offer to various stakeholders and the public.
- Strong Systems and IT Orientation: Map the needs of the school from a systems and IT perspective to ensure that our students continue to benefit from the latest technological developments.
- Strategic Leadership: Develop and execute robust strategies for market growth through innovative marketing and sales while delivering on excellence across all domains to ensure we are the school of choice for those looking for online grinds.
- Opportunity Identification: Proactively identify and exploit new market opportunities align with our strategic goals.

Qualifications and Experience

- A degree in business, education or a related area.
- A background rooted in education so that you understand the needs of teachers and learners as they prepare for State examinations.
- Proven experience in business development, preferably within the education sector, demonstrating a track record of achieving ambitious revenue and profitability targets.

- Strong leadership skills with the ability to motivate and manage teams towards achieving strategic objectives.
- Strategic thinker with a keen ability to identify market trends, opportunities, and potential for geographical expansion and acquisitions.
