POST DETAILS

Title:
Part-time Chemistry Lecturer

Description:
Part-time Chemistry Lecturer in Cork

Dublin International Foundation College (DIFC) is opening a branch in Cork which will be based on the Griffith College Cork campus. We run foundation programmes which allow international students to progress to undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Ireland and the UK.

We are looking for a Chemistry Lecturer to teach on the International Foundation Year programme (Science and Engineering streams). The academic year runs from October until the end of May. Further information about our organisation and courses is available at www.difc.ie.

Details of the role:
• 7 teaching hours per week from October to May
• A combination of lectures and tutorials
• Approximately A level/first year undergraduate standard
• Involves setting and grading coursework and exams (both formative and summative)
• Involves working with students of diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds

Essential:

• Minimum of Honours Degree in related field

Desirable:
• Minimum of two years' teaching experience
• Experience of working with international students
• Excellent communication and administrative skills
• English language teaching qualification such as CELTA

If you are interested, please send your CV and a cover letter to Marian Hurley, Programme Manager, at marian@difccork.ie by 17.00 on Monday 25 September.

Interviews will take place week starting 25 September in Griffith College Cork. Teaching begins week starting 9 October. There may be induction sessions week starting 2 October.
