Applications posted, hand delivered or sent to individual email addresses of Recruitment staff or Recruitment Inbox will not be accepted.

Late applications will not be considered.

PART 1

Competition correspondence will issue to one email address only. The onus is on the candidate to ensure they provide an email address to which they have regular access.

PART 2

General Education

State any qualifications you have obtained. Should you be successful at interview, you may be required to produce the original certificates of any qualifications mentioned.

Further Education

State any qualifications you have obtained. Include any special skills training and any relevant evening classes. This is especially important for positions requiring a professional qualification. Should you be successful at interview, you may be required to produce the original certificates of any qualifications mentioned. Please note that the onus is on applicants to prove they have the qualifications detailed in the job specification.

Work Experience

Start with your current/most recent employment and work backwards. You should also give reasons for any gaps in your employment.

Any Other Relevant Information

Skills and experience acquired outside of work can sometimes be just as relevant as those gained in work.

PART 3

Examples of Competencies

In this section, we ask you to describe some of your personal achievements to date that demonstrate certain competencies, which have been identified as necessary, for the position.

As the examples you provide in Part 3 may be used in the shortlisting assessment, please outline your examples clearly and concisely. The examples should demonstrate to the board that you have the competencies required for the role.

Please note, when providing competency examples, candidates will be disqualified if they exceed 350 words (using Microsoft Word word count).

PART 4

Declaration

You are asked to confirm that all the information you provide is true and accurate. Applicants who are subsequently found to have given false information may be disqualified from this competition or have any offer of assignment withdrawn.
