POST DETAILS

Additional Information: North Wicklow Educate Together Secondary School opened in temporary accommodation on Putland Road, Bray in August 2016.

We are looking for a teacher of Spanish. A willingness to participate in extra-curricular activities is essential as is a capacity to work with other staff in promoting cross-curricular and phenomenon based learning.

We are a community of learners which will eventually serve up to 1000 students from Bray and further afield. If you are interested in working with a highly motivated staff and are interested in helping to lead learning and teaching in this rapidly growing equality-based voluntary secondary school then please email PDFs of the following to recruitment@nwetss.ie:

A short CV (maximum 2 pages) including the names and contact details of two professional referees,

A letter of application which makes specific reference to why you want to work in North Wicklow Educate Together Secondary School.

A brief lesson resource or lesson plan which combines at least two subjects and which you would be happy to talk about in an interview.

Applicants should note that full Teaching Council registration is required and that National Vetting Bureau credentials must be up to date.

Interviews will be held in late May and shortlisting will apply. Our school is a 'Droichead' recognised school.

Required Subject: Spanish
