POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

St Brigid's Junior NS proudly serves the community in Brookfield, West Tallaght. It operates according to a Catholic ethos, welcoming the enrolment of pupils from families of all heritages and traditions.

Helped by resources provided through DEIS, we offer a number of programmes to support learning and to motivate learners. We put strong emphasis on promoting good attendance & punctuality, on the arts, as well as on literacy and numeracy (see <https://www.stbrigidsbrookfield.ie>)

The school shares a campus, though not a building, with St Aidan's Senior NS, a school with a similar profile catering for Rang III to Rang VI.

Candidates should note the following, please:

A. Please attach specified documents only. Additional documentation will be sought as and when necessary from successful candidate(s). Documents may be combined as one attachment or sent as 3 separate attachments.

B. Please ensure that all referees provide a mobile-phone number or some number at which they may be contacted outside of school hours.

C. We plan to interview five or more candidates on Saturday, June 9th in Tallaght. Each candidate invited to attend for interview will receive details of their interview time and venue by email and by text message. It is a candidate's own responsibility to ensure that s/he is available to attend at that time and place.

D. A successful candidate will be required to demonstrate compliance with the regulations governing registration with the Teaching Council, Occupational Health Clearance and Garda Vetting before her/his appointment can be confirmed.

E. When the Board has received written confirmation from the successful candidate that s/he is accepting the post, all other applicants will be notified by email that the appointment process is concluding.
