POST DETAILS

Title: July Provision Limerick/Clare
Description: Hello,
I'm an English and Geography secondary school teacher based in East Clare but living in Limerick. I am available for tutoring during July for both national school and secondary school children. I would describe myself as a very active and outgoing person, who is very reliable, responsible and caring. Although I do not have specific one to one experience with children with extra needs (as my school does not have a unit) I have worked with children who have had specific needs (Autism, Aspergers etc) in the past. I also volunteer in Barretstown and have a counseling skills course completed.
