POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

Applications are now invited for instrumental music teaching positions which may arise in piano, guitar, voice, percussion, wind, strings (especially violin) and brass instruments. Teaching hours will depend on take-up for each instrument, but typically we have required 10 hours per week of each instrument and there is the potential to combine instruments to increase a teacher's hours.

Temple Carrig School is a new co-educational secondary school under Church of Ireland patronage which opened in 2014 in Greystones, Co Wicklow. As such, the School is still in its relative infancy. It has taken in a new group of First Year students every year so that in September we will still only have five year groups and our first ever Leaving Cert classes. As such, these positions represent a unique opportunity for instrumental teachers to establish themselves in the School as it grows, with genuine chances of achieving a long-term career. It is also an especially vibrant and attractive place in which to teach - successful candidates will very much enjoy being part of our young, positive and enthusiastic staff team.

To apply, please email CV and covering letter of application to teachingjobs2018@templecarrigschool.ie. Postal applications will not be accepted. Closing date for receipt of applications is Monday 26th June. Short-listing will apply and we regret that due to the expected high volume of applications it will not be possible to reply to unsuccessful candidates.
