Additional Information:

Rockboro Primary & Pre-school was founded in 1969 as one of the country's only fully independent, private, multi-denominational, co-ed schools. – a status that remains uniquely to this day.

Rockboro is a multi-denominational school educating children of different religious affiliations or none, fostering in our pupils an appreciation for traditions other than their own. Our pupils are encouraged to develop positive and healthy attitudes towards life, to embrace cultural diversity and to develop a concern and respect for others in their community.

Children at Rockboro thrive in small classes of 20 or fewer students and are encouraged to think independently and to develop a lifelong love of learning in an intimate educational environment with one class for pre-school through to sixth class cycles.

There is now an exceptional opportunity for the addition of a dynamic Teaching Principal with both academic and management experience and drive to lead the school into a new era of academic excellence and extended school community development.

The Board of Management seeks a strong leader who is passionate, inspirational, and visionary with a proven track record in school management, who possesses strong organisational abilities, a deep knowledge of curriculum developments and has outstanding interpersonal and communication skills.
