POST DETAILS

Title: Teacher of Geography

Description: Applications are invited for this opportunity to join a thriving Geography team in September 2018. St John's is an inspiring school characterised by the warmth of its community and its aspirational, outward looking approach. Geography at St John's is a very popular subject and is the fastest growing option subject at our school with a new A level department being set up last year.

The successful candidate will demonstrate equal passion for the subject and working with young students. A background or desire to teach A level, as well as to plan and co-ordinate field trips would be an advantage.

We would be willing to arrange travel for those shortlisted for interview and would actively support in procuring accommodation for September.
