POST DETAILS

Title: Sessional Teacher of Biology and Chemistry

Description: University College Dublin International Study Centre (UCDISC) is located on the Belfield campus of Ireland's international university UCD. The centre offers Foundation courses to international students preparing them for entry onto their chosen courses at UCD. UCDISC is managed by Study Group a world leader in the provision of international education, an innovative global company committed to delivering the best possible student outcomes. For more details about UCDISC please visit <https://www.ucdisc.com/>

Sessional Tutor of Biology and Chemistry
Teaching approx. 15 hours per week, scheduled flexibly to candidates requirements where possible.

We are currently looking for a qualified teacher of Biology and Chemistry to teach on our International Foundation Year (QQI Level 6) commencing from September 2018. Applicants will be Masters qualified with experience of teaching international students in a university environment. A teaching qualification is desirable. A student-centred approach, and good IT and organisational skills are essential. They will be excellent communicators, proactive teachers, patient mentors and, above all, passionate about helping students achieve their goals. In addition to this, they will ideally be familiar with creating online and offline learning material, and have basic administration skills (e.g. filing, Microsoft Office). They will be proactive, creating new learning material where needed and flagging up any student progression or welfare issues. Please note: the ISC operates a four term teaching year.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students, and expect all staff and volunteers to share the same commitment.

Study Group processes your information in line with data protection regulations. Please click here to view our Candidate Privacy Policy. https://corporate.studygroup.com/-/media/Corporate-Site/Files/Privacy-policy-2018/Candidates_Privacy_Notice.pdf

The ISC is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of our students and appointments will be subject to receipt of satisfactory references and a Garda Vetting check.
