Title:
Teacher of Computer Science

Description:
Fujairah Private Academy is a non-profit school for students 4-18, following the British System. It was established in 1982.
Applicants should should either be single with no accompanying dependents or as part of a married teaching couple where the spouse is seeking employment in the school. We offer a tax free salary, accommodation, utilities and return airfare.

To applicants who are flexible, energetic, open to a different cultural experience and tolerant of others and their points of view, we offer a pleasant working environment where children behave well and enjoy being in school. Staff joining us must be prepared to work beyond the school day and contribute to the extracurricular programme and to the school community. The school has a high standard of IT Support provided by the Manager and technicians. Applicants should send an application form (not supporting documents please) to receive details of package and the post to the Principal Ms Jan Brettingham at principal@fpa.sch.ae.
