Additional Information: Wilson's Hospital School is a seven-day co-educational boarding and day school, with a five-day teaching week. We operate under the trusteeship of the Archbishops and Bishops of the Church of Ireland. While the majority of pupils are Church of Ireland, all denominations are welcome, provided there is acceptance of the School's ethos, and in accordance with the Admissions Policy of the School. The school remains on its original 200 acre site of 1761. We have a modern teaching block. Wilson's is fortunate to enjoy the tranquility of a by-gone age while possessing the advantages of technology of the new century.
