Additional Information: St. Michael's House Special National School Grosvenor is seeking applications for the post of Teaching Deputy Principal to join the school's management team. This is a key leadership role in the school and will be of interest to teachers that have experience in special education and who are committed to the development of a positive learning environment for pupils with an intellectual disability and have a proven record in curriculum and policy development. Reporting to the Principal the Deputy Principal will assume responsibility for the school in the absence of the Principal. The Deputy Principal will work in collaboration with the principal to ensure; that all children have a positive educational experience, that there is strong leadership across the school community and that the school fully conforms to the Governance Structures as set out by the Department of Education and Skills.

Located in Sandyford, Co Dublin the school will transfer to a new purpose built school at the same location in the next 2 to 3 years. Currently the school has enrolment of sixty pupils with moderate/severe/profound intellectual disability, it is envisaged that this will grow to ninety pupils when it moves to the new building.
