POST DETAILS

Title: Music Education Partnership Support Manager

Description:

To support the work of its growing Quality, Support & Development team, Music Generation is recruiting for a new Music Education Partnership Support Manager.

Music Generation is Ireland's National Music Education Programme which helps children and young people access performance music education in their local area. It has been successfully established in 25 cities and counties in Ireland, creating some 67,000 opportunities for children and young people to engage in music tuition annually.

As it builds towards its aim of nationwide expansion by 2022, Music Generation is now seeking to appoint a new Music Education Partnership Support Manager to join the team at the National Development Office.

This is an exciting role for a skilled professional with expertise in and a demonstrable track record of delivering results and achievement in music, education development and management.

Reporting to the Head of Quality, Support and Development, the successful candidate will join a growing team focused on providing strategic support for the development and ongoing quality of its network of Local Music Education Partnerships.
