Who are Sparrow Early Learning?

Sparrow Early Learning have 60+ Early Learning Centres across Australia in Melbourne, Perth and Brisbane.

It is our vision to Inspire, Nurture and Grow children from 0-12 years through our programs, practices and learning environments. Each of our centres are fun, engaging and full of the best resources and facilities that value each child, our Educators, families, and the community we are part of.

The Sparrow Difference

At Sparrow Early Learning, we appreciate and understand that every child is unique. It is our commitment to children to prepare them for life. Sparrow Kindergarten programs, practices and environments are play-based and child-centred which support our teaching team to create a nurturing learning environment that supports children to develop a love for learning.

We are passionate about our Educational program at Sparrow which focuses on open-ended learning experiences using purposeful, high-quality learning resources designed to teach through quality meaningful play, relationships, and interactions.

At Sparrow children's learning and curiosity is encouraged through experiences such as weekly excursions in the Australian bush, play on the beaches, library trips as well as music and swimming lessons, at some locations.

Our Team

At Sparrow Early Learning each of our Early Learning Centres have a passionate early childhood team dedicated to creating quality, child-led learning programs.

We acknowledge, recognise, and believe in our team members. We ensure our teams are having fun, are happy, and appreciate coming to work each day, with ongoing support, Educator wellbeing meetings, childcare discounts, Educator competitions and events held throughout the year.

At Sparrow, we are passionate about learning and growing our knowledge in Early Childhood. We have our own online learning and development program that supports our team members to continuously grow their knowledge and careers in Early Childhood.

We place significant importance on the role of our Early Childhood Teachers and Educators at Sparrow, you will be a key driver in establishing constructive and robust relationships with our children, our lovely families, your colleagues and the local community.
