POST DETAILS

Title:

Primary Teaching Position

Description:

Outstanding Primary School based in Ealing, West London.

There are three vacancies available for this school which have a start date of September 2022.

This is a well established and supportive school based in the ever popular area of Ealing, London.

Ealing is based west of London, it is an ideal location to live as it has fantastic transport links with Heathrow airport and central London only 30 minutes away!

The school is holding virtual interviews with Irish teachers over the coming two weeks. There will be every effort made to be as flexible as possible to arrange suitable interview times over this period.

The school has been judged as Outstanding by Ofsted, they said: "The behaviour of pupils is outstanding, both in lessons and around the school. Pupils support each other well and respect each other's backgrounds. They believe that the school is a very safe place and that it cares for their needs very well".

This is a school that will support and promote professional development whilst also providing mentorship for newly relocated teachers.

It is an exciting opportunity to learn and grow as a professional in an ever exciting city!

Engage Education has been supporting Irish teachers for many years, Emma and Rachel in the Dublin office are trained teachers and provide consultation, interview preparation and much more.

Benefits:

Relocation Bonus

Access to free online CPD short courses

High level support from experts in Ireland and England

With offices in Leeds, Brighton, Norwich and the midlands area, we are sure we can assist with your job search if the above advertisement is not suitable for you.
