POST DETAILS

Title:

Secondary Teacher - multiple subjects

Description:

Applications are open for interviews with an Outstanding school based in South East London. There are currently five Irish teachers working in different departments and also the Head of the school is Irish too. This school has proven to be supportive, understanding and generally a lovely place to work and develop your teaching skills. .

This school is on the Inner London national teacher pay scale which ranges from £32,157-£42,624. All teachers are paid in line with experience including experience gained in Ireland. Another benefit to this position, is that school is situated within a commutable distance to Heathrow airport where Ryanair operates.

Vacancies available:

Science - any specialism
Maths
English
Design and Technology
Media
Religious studies

About the school:

The school's motto is 'Achievement is Success' and believes every student has the right to the highest standard of education so that they can accomplish their aspirations. The aim is to give every student an educational experience that is enjoyable and holistic so that they develop into responsible, articulate, and successful young people.

Ofsted visited this school in 2019 and said "the behaviour of students around the site and in classrooms is exemplary. There is a tremendously positive culture of learning and a very strong sense of community. Pride in their academy is shared by students, and teaching and support staff".

About you:

Hold a teaching degree and be recognised either conditionally or fully with the Irish Teaching Council.

A diverse and creative educator that puts students centred learning at the core of your approach. Excellent subject knowledge.

About Engage Education:
