Teideal:
National Co-Ordinator

Cur sÃ©os:

The National Council for Special Education (NCSE) is an independent statutory body established to improve the delivery of education services to persons with special educational needs arising from disabilities with particular emphasis on children and young people.

The NCSE is currently undergoing a significant organisational expansion which will enhance the delivery of services. It has developed a service delivery strategy based on three fundamental values: community, inclusion, and excellence. The NCSE is determined to encourage all stakeholders to practice conscious inclusion and equity-mindedness. Working for the NCSE entails actively contributes to the advancement of inclusive education, ensuring that all students, regardless of their needs, receive the individualized support they require to completely participate in their day-to-day school activities.

The NCSE is now recruiting for the position of National Co-ordinator. A panel will be formed from which existing and future vacancies will be filled. There are currently two vacancies to be filled, please see the link below for further information

The role of National Co-Ordinator for Local Service is one of two such roles in the NCSE and together form the National Co-ordination Team. The team is one of a number of Inclusion teams in the NCSE and serves a critical function in the delivery of NCSE service to students with additional needs and schooling communities in the educational sector. National Co-ordinators are responsible for the co-ordination, oversight and delivery of frontline services in the areas under their management. National Co-ordinators provide direct management and co-ordination of service to a number of Team Managers within a specific geographic NCSE region. National Co-ordinators hold responsibility for the ongoing professional support, liaison and co-ordination of consistent practice for key professions in regional teams in line with the NCSE Customer Charter. The role has additional project management based responsibilities and works to ensure consistency in NCSE frontline delivery in line with statutory and legal responsibilities on a National basis. As integral members of the Inclusion Teams, National Co-ordinators work to ensure delivery of NCSE service to the education sector, students and their families.

The Closing date for applications is the 5th January 2024 at 3pm
