POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

St. Fergus' National School is a vertical, co educational Catholic school under the Patronage of the Bishop of Limerick. This vacancy is for a Deputy Principal Teacher and is a permanent position in a teaching capacity that will be appointed by open competition. To be eligible for consideration, candidates must be fully registered with the Teaching Council and must have a minimum of five years teaching experience, two of which must be in a recognised primary school within the Republic of Ireland.

The appointee will become part of the leadership and management team in the school, and the overall responsibility of the Deputy is to assist the Principal in the management and continued growth of the school.

In accordance with Circular 0044/2019, it should be noted that as the needs of the school continuously evolve, a review of duties may result in the reassignment of the roles and responsibilities within the leadership and management team. The responsibilities of the role will, at times, require the successful candidate to participate in the leadership role outside of the standard school day. Besides the discharge of specific administrative and management duties, the Deputy Principal also exercises a leadership and motivational role in the direction of the school enterprise. Together, the Principal and Deputy Principal form the senior management team of the school and they must work in tandem to fulfil the aims and objectives of the school.

The Deputy Principal may be required to deputise for the Principal in their absence (may involve short/longer terms), in all matters organisational / administrative and in relation to discipline within the school. The Deputy Principal must be willing to work in conjunction with/under the direction of the Principal.

Based on the identified leadership and management needs and priorities of the school, as identified by the Board of Management, the roles and responsibilities of the post include the four domains as specified in Circular 0044/2019. These are:

1. Leading Teaching and Learning
2. Managing the Organisation

3. Leading School Development
4. Developing Leadership Capacity

The following skills, knowledge and experience are desirable:

- i. Evidence of continuing professional development and the ability to promote a culture of learning and teamwork in the school;
- ii. Knowledge and interest in promoting the school ethos and sacramental preparation;
- iii. A clear understanding and knowledge of SEN including experience in coordinating SEN and working with external professionals;
- iv. Knowledge and experience of inducting new members to a staff;
- v. Organisational capabilities in managing school resources and workload;
- vi. Effective interpersonal, communication and people management skills including a proven ability to work collaboratively with all staff members, the Board of Management and the wider community;
- vii. Proven leadership skills, including policy development and implementation and prioritising, planning and organising the workload;
- viii. Previous teaching experience across a range of classes and in SET;
- ix. Experience of long-term strategic planning for the development of the school, including an understanding of School Self-Evaluation (SSE) policy development and implementation
- x. An understanding and competency in ICT and its usage for administrative and educational purposes, including policy development and implementation.
