POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

Wesley College is recruiting a teacher of 6th Class from August 2024.

The successful candidate will be the main teacher for this smaller group of students, benefiting from a secondary school connection to give the "Prep" class a very special experience before 1st Year. The successful candidate will be an integral part of the Wesley College team and will work with teachers from the secondary school who may take subject areas such as PE, Irish, Modern Languages, Music and Science to suit the particular strengths of the person appointed. (As part of the flexibility of this post, it may suit the person appointed to take classes in the senior school.)

This position may suit a primary school teacher who wishes to be part of a larger secondary school staff and school with extensive facilities. The successful candidate will be privately paid commensurate with experience, ability and qualifications.

This is a fulltime permanent post. Written references, where available, should be submitted with an application.
