POST DETAILS

Additional Information: St. David's Holy Faith Secondary School, Greystones in a Catholic Voluntary Co-educational Secondary School, with a current student enrolment of 754. The school has recently completed a €20 million refurbishment and re-development providing students and staff with the very best in facilities and resources.

The school prides itself in providing students with excellence in teaching and learning, promoting and delivering sporting and the arts opportunities, within a school community that is proud of our ethos and role within the town of Greystones.

If you are a hard working, committed and focused teacher, who believes in the importance of continuous professional development, I would very much love to hear from you.

We run a wonderful sports and arts programme, so a willingness to lead a team or teams in sport and/or the arts, would very much be an advantage.

All details pertaining to our school can be found on the school website www.stdavids.ie and there are links to school social media site for X and Instagram.
