POST DETAILS

Additional Information: St. Peter's Community School is a progressive and growing co-educational school in Passage West, Co. Cork.

We are seeking applicants who are passionate about their subject, are student-centered, hard-working and who want to be part of a team that empowers students both in and out of the classroom.

Our teachers must also have the ability to engage and inspire very academic and high achieving students as high quality teaching and learning is at the centre of what we do.

The ability to teach multiple subjects and ability to contribute to extra-curricular activities will be an advantage.

Registration with the Teaching Council and a Garda Vetting Disclosure will be required for appointment

All appointments are subject to the sanction and approval of the Department of Education and Skills and the post not being required for the redeployment process

Please note this is a fixed term position to cover a career break

Provisional date for interviews is week commencing May 20th 2024 (subject to change)

Required Subject: Gaeilge
