Title:

NCSE Advisors in Autism, Behaviour and Special Educational Needs (Full Time Secondment Opportunities for the 2024/2025 school year)

Description:

The National Council for Special Education (NCSE) is an independent statutory body established to improve the delivery of education services to persons with special educational needs arising from disabilities with particular emphasis on children and young people.

Currently NCSE supports are delivered via our regional teams comprising of:

- Special Educational Needs Organisers (SENOs) who interact with parents and schools to support children with special education needs.
- Advisors who provide Teacher Professional Learning (TPL) and in-school support to schools in the area of special educational needs.
- Visiting teachers (VTs) who support children and young people who are Deaf/Hard of Hearing or Blind/Visually Impaired, their families and their teachers.
- On a pilot basis, the NCSE have Occupational Therapists, Speech and Language Therapists and Behaviour Practitioners who provide professional learning and in-school support to schools to build schools' capacity to support students with special education needs.
- Head office and other personnel.

The NCSE is now recruiting for full-time secondment Advisor positions which are required to support the work of the NCSE for the 2024/2025 school year. The NCSE will establish panels of qualified applicants to form panels throughout the country. These positions are as follows:

- Advisors with expertise in Autism
- Advisors with expertise in Behaviour and
- Advisors with expertise in general Special Educational Needs

The positions will be nationwide, and will be filled on a county basis

Deadline for the receipt of applications is 3pm 31st May 2024
