Title:

Physics Teacher / Head of Physics required in the Caribbean

Description:

Physics Teacher for a Caribbean British International School

Description:

Probity Teaching Ltd is thrilled to partner with a prestigious British international school in the Caribbean. We are seeking a dedicated and dynamic Physics Teacher to join this vibrant institution, delivering high-quality education with an emphasis on academic excellence and innovation. The role Head of Physics may be available to strong applicants.

The School

This exceptional school offers a holistic and rigorous British curriculum, fostering creativity, critical thinking and a love for learning with state-of-the-art facilities, including science laboratories, sports complexes and expansive outdoor spaces; it is an inspiring environment for both students and staff!

About the Role

Start Date: August 2025

Position: Physics Teacher (Secondary Level, including IGCSE and A-level)

Responsibilities: Deliver engaging and challenging Physics lessons, contribute to the school's STEM initiatives, and inspire a passion for science in students.

Requirements:

- A commitment to excellence in teaching and learning.
- Familiarity with British curriculum standards (e.g., IGCSE/A-Level).
- Willingness to contribute to the wider school community through extracurricular activities or leadership opportunities.

What We're Looking For

-We seek a self-motivated, empathetic, and ambitious professional who thrives in a high-performing school environment. Candidates should have:

- Experience teaching Physics in a British or international school.
- A track record of strong academic outcomes.
- The ability to inspire curiosity and achievement in students.

The Package

This role offers a highly competitive package, including:

- Accommodation or an allowance.

- Comprehensive visa and relocation support.
- Annual flights.
- Professional development opportunities.

How to Apply

If this exciting opportunity resonates with you, please send your CV to info@probityteaching.com with the subject line: Physics Teacher: Caribbean. Shortlisted candidates will receive an application form for completion.

We look forward to helping you take the next step in your teaching journey!
