POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

St Roses NS is urgently searching for eligible teachers to work with us as part of the DES Student Teacher Placement Programme.

Our Summer School Programme is being held from 30th June to 11th July.

All applicant must be graduate teachers and PME teachers in final year that can start teaching in the school from May (or on completion of exams) until the end of the programme in July.

Our school, St Rose's is a school for children aged 8-12 with literacy difficulties, one of the few Reading School in the country. We teach in smaller classes approx 10:1 student-teacher ratio.

An excellent opportunity for graduate teachers to get involved with explicit interventions like the Wilson Reading System and upskill in the latest dyslexia friendly teaching methods. We are located just off the Junction 11 on the M50. Please send your CV to the email below, we are also very interested in any extra curricular areas you can bring to our school.
