Please note an editable application form is available on the school website .

Hansfield ETSS is large school (circa 870 students) under the patronage of Educate Together. It caters for students from a wide variety of cultural, socio-economic and educational backgrounds, including 18 students in three Special Classes (ASD).

As a large school it provides a lot of opportunity for creativity and innovation. New subjects such as PE and Computer Science are under development at in Senior Cycle. One: One Devices were introduced for first years in 2023/2024 and there is a strong commitment to professional development for staff with good opportunities for career consolidation and promotion over time. Vacancies that arise in 2025/2026 are set out at the end of this Information Note. Some are linked to the new positions and others to staff secondments, career break, job sharing or family leave. The final employment status and number of hours offered will depend on the final teacher allocation approved by the Department of Education and the qualifications and subject combination of the successful candidate.

-Experience of the following will be an advantage:

- working on developing curriculum initiatives e.g. intercultural and language development programmes, theme-based learning not guided by a national framework.

- working with students with different abilities and special and additional educational needs

- working with students for whom English is a second language.

- working on or leading guidance initiatives and/or behaviour support initiatives.

-Successful candidates will be required to commit to the following:

- exploring innovative teaching and learning, including collaborative practice, team teaching, experiential learning and using ICT as a primary teaching and learning tool

- mediating the curriculum through integrated and theme-based learning initiatives focussing on experiential and discovery-based learning

promoting school wide ethical education, ethical practice and development education

supporting positive behaviour focussing on the principles of restorative practice

building the school ethos and culture as framed by the Patron Body - Educate Together.

Applicants should visit the school website www.hansfieldsecondary.ie and the school twitter account. Applicants are also advised to visit the Educate Together website

(www.educatetogether.ie) and read the guidance documents for second level school including ethos development to become familiar with the school expectation, ethos and priorities.
