POST DETAILS

Title:
Co-ordinator for Faith Formation in Primary Schools

Description:
The Diocese of Cork and Ross is a faith community of 68 parishes and 173 primary schools under the patronage of the Bishop of Cork and Ross. The diocese wishes to sustain and develop its commitment to support primary school communities, parishes and families of parishes by appointing a part-time Coordinator for Faith Formation in Primary Schools to support and guide religious education and faith formation.

The person in this role will support religious education and faith formation in Primary Schools under the patronage of the diocese, including the 'Grow in Love' programme through a range of activities including school visits to advise, resource and support teachers and similarly support parents, priests, parishes and families of parishes in faith formation.
