Eolas Breise:

DDLETB invites applications from suitably qualified persons for the post of Administrative Deputy Principal Teacher of Belmayne Community Special School under a permanent contract of employment to take effect immediately at the conclusion of the recruitment process. Belmayne Community Special School (BCSS) is a Community Special School that will provide for the needs of students with autism and complex learning needs. It will cater for students who require the support of a special school, from the beginning of primary school to eighteen years of age. This new developing school will be located in the Dublin 15 area. The school will open in September 2025 with Principal, an Administrative Deputy Principal and teaching staff to cater for a number of special classes. As Belmayne CSS is a developing school, the long-term enrolment of children in the school is expected to grow from 2025 onwards.

Dublin and Dun Laoghaire Education and Training Board is a statutory local education authority operating under the terms of the Education and Training Boards Act 2013. The Board provides mainstream educational programmes to schools and colleges as well as providing a wide range of adult and community programmes. The Board's educational remit extends from Balbriggan in the north of the county to Lucan in the West, to Dun Laoghaire in the south.
