Additional Information:

Stratford National School is a small, co-educational, multi-grade primary school in the heart of Rathgar, Dublin 6. The school shares a campus with Stratford College Co-educational Secondary School. The school has four mainstream classes and two autism classes, which opened in September 2023. Enrolment consists of pupils from a wide range of cultural backgrounds and the school welcomes children of all religions and none. Diversity and inclusion are cherished by the school.

Stratford National School is seeking an English as an Additional Language teacher for 10 hours per week. The position may suit a teacher currently on career break or any teacher currently seeking part-time hours. The days worked per week will be agreed with the school prior to starting the position and there may be additional hours available following the submission of EAL numbers at the end of September.
