St. Laurence O'Toole's Specialist School is a second-level high support school catering for young people between the ages of 12 and 16 who are at risk. Students come from backgrounds of severe social marginalisation and their behaviours can reflect the adverse life experiences they have had.

We have twenty students who access the Junior Cycle Level 3 curriculum. We are hoping to expand our curriculum to include Home Economics.

We are currently looking for expressions of interest from teachers to deliver the cookery element of Home Economics for Junior Cycle one or two days per week. Please telephone the school principal on 0879516767 for further information.
