Additional Information:

Applications are welcome for the position of PE teacher to Mount Seskin Community College.

We are excited to expand our team as we prepare for 2026-27 the new academic year. Successful applicants will join a caring, vibrant and ambitious team committed to offering the best to our students. We are a DEIS+ school, proud of our wide-ranging provision and support for the young people in our community. We embody DDLETB values of respect, care, community, equality and excellence in education in all our work.

PE is incredibly popular at MSCC with a wide ranging curriculum, high take up of informal sports clubs over lunch and successful extra-curricular provision. The appointed teacher will teach across junior and senior cycle programmes of study and shape the new PE Leaving Cert subject for introduction in September 2027.
