Additional Information:

St. David's Holy Faith Secondary School, Greystones is a large, Catholic, co-educational secondary school of 800 students. The school prides itself in delivering the very best in academic excellence with a proud tradition in the world of the arts and sports, for all our students. The school is seeking a committed, qualified, hardworking teacher that will embrace our school's traditions and our four pillars - Ethos, Arts, Sport and Academic Excellence. The school is situated overlooking the Irish Sea. The school campus recently saw a state-of-the-art redevelopment, at a cost of €21 million, in October 2023. As of September 2025, the school added two Autistic Spectrum classrooms to our school building.

If you are willing to volunteer in the delivery of our Arts/Sports/Ethos programmes we would be delighted to hear from you.
