POST DETAILS

Title:

Examinations and Assessment Manager-Research, Development and Innovation

Description:

The State Examinations Commission (SEC) has responsibility for the operation of the State Certificate examinations. Its remit includes the development, assessment, accreditation and certification of examinations, including the Leaving Certificate, Leaving Certificate Applied and Junior Cycle examinations.

The Examinations and Assessment Division (EAD) is the professional division of the SEC responsible for ensuring the quality and effective conduct of all of the SEC's examinations. This involves taking all necessary actions to maintain parity of standards in each subject from year to year and ensuring compliance with the requirements and procedures of the SEC.

The SEC now has a vacancy for an Examinations and Assessment Manager (EAM) in the area of Research, Development and Innovation in its Examinations and Assessment Division. This is an exciting opportunity for a suitably qualified, enthusiastic and committed individual.

Reporting to an Assistant Head of the Examinations and Assessment Division, the successful candidate will play a key role in designing and implementing a research support structure for the organisation. They will be responsible for developing a programme of research proposals, planning and co-ordinating an annual schedule of research activities and undertaking research directly.

Full details of the role, including specific eligibility requirements is available on While the SEC headquarters is located in Athlone, Co. Westmeath, Examination and Assessment Managers are located throughout the country.

Full details of the role, including specific eligibility requirements, is available on www.publicjobs.ie

The closing date for receipt of completed applications is 3pm on Thursday 11th June 2026.

We are committed to a policy of equal opportunity and encourage applications under all nine grounds of the Employment Equality Act.
