Additional Information:

'Partnership in Education' has for a very long time been the bedrock here in Scoil Naomh Iosaf, Riverstown. The three-way relationship between Pupils, Parents and the school has been built firmly over the years with the cornerstones of Patience, Understanding, Encouragement and above all mutual Respect. We work very hard to keep these relationships intact and refreshed. The culture of our school community thrives as a result.

We are very proud of our school. It is a warm, open and a friendly place.

Children are happy here. We are inclusive, we celebrate achievement and we work hard. Children with additional needs are nurtured and supported on a daily basis. Wellbeing is at the centre of all that we do. Care and Kindness are always addressed at our assemblies. We have two thriving Autism Classes.

Is é mana na scoile ná 'Mol an Óige'.

Go raibh maith agat.

A number of varying leaves including maternity leaves must also be filled from these interviews and in preparation for the Autumn return..
