Additional Information:

Glenasmole National School is a charming, small rural school nestled in the foothills of the Dublin Mountains. Often referred to as a well-kept secret by visitors, our school offers a unique blend of tranquility and convenience, situated just minutes away from the bustling town of Tallaght. The school is only a 10-minute drive from the M50, making it easily accessible.

We are a multi-grade vertical school with a kind and supportive staff, and a wonderful, close-knit community. Glenasmole N.S. is a place where staff members are encouraged to get involved, work collaboratively as part of a supportive team, and continuously learn and grow. We are also a Droichead school.
