GENERAL JOB DESCRIPTION | CANDIDATE PROFILE AND SCOPE OF THE POSITION

Marino Institute of Education (MIE) wishes to appoint a person with expertise in literacy education and children's literature for part-time lecturing hours on a fixed term for semester 1 of academic year 2026-27. This part-time post will teach modules with duties specific to the area of literacy, English methods and children's literature.

Commitment to high-quality teaching and learning in a student-centred environment is important. Enthusiasm for a multi-disciplinary environment is desired. The person appointed must exhibit evidence of strong commitment to excellence in teaching, research and continued scholarly activity.

Essential Qualifications & Skills (i.e. those, without which, a candidate would not be able to do the job. Applications that have not clearly demonstrated that candidates possess the essential requirements will not be shortlisted):

In order to be considered for this post, applicants will require:

- A relevant post-graduate qualification at masters or doctoral level in Education or be able to demonstrate evidence of progress towards completion of a doctorate relevant to primary/literacy and English methods education.
- A teaching qualification at primary level recognised by, or eligible for recognition by, the Teaching Council of Ireland (Route 1).
- Relevant applied experience in the field of education with demonstrated capacity to deliver high quality courses at undergraduate and postgraduate levels
- Evidence of engagement in innovative research/practice in the area of literacy education, English methods or children's literature, particularly in the field of primary and early childhood education.

e) Knowledge of contemporary developments in the broad field of education and more specifically literacy and how teachers teach literacy and English methods across the continuum of education from both theoretical and applied perspectives.

f) Competence in on-line education, such as ePortfolios, blended, distance and flexible learning routes.

Desirable:

Inniúlacht sa Ghaeilge inmhianaithe – competence in Irish is desirable.

Candidates must clearly indicate in their applications how they meet each of these pre-requisites.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Reporting Relationship

The appointee is required to carry out the duties under the general direction of the Head of Department, to whom she/he reports, and to whom he/she is responsible for the performance of these duties in the first instance. The appointee will report through the Head of Department to the Institute President and/or such other MIE officers as the President may designate from time to time.

The reporting relationship may be subject to periodic review, in line with service needs and developments in the Institute.

Duties and Responsibilities

The duties, at undergraduate and postgraduate levels, include the following:

- Programme/module design, lecturing, tutorial work, and examining in the area of literacy education, English methods and children's literature for undergraduate and postgraduate programmes
- Development of innovative teaching and learning strategies
- Demonstrate a commitment to pursuing a research agenda and publishing research in the area of literacy education and/ or children's literature
- Development of ePortfolios with students across the continuum of education
- Engaging in all the administrative duties/processes of the department including participation in meetings of the department, Institute, and other groupings
- Promote the seven guiding principles of the trustees

Duties include lecturing on the undergraduate programmes (B.Ed., Baitsiléir san Oideachas Trí Mheán na Gaeilge (Bunmhúinteoireacht), B.Sc. Education Studies, B.Sc. Early Childhood Studies), postgraduate programmes (including the PME and masters programmes) and participating in the delivery of part-time and other programmes. The person appointed will contribute to course design and policy formation at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

It should be noted that in each work area/department within the Institute, the appointee must work as part of a team. Although duties pertaining to the post are broadly defined under the various headings as listed, the list of duties is not exhaustive. The appointee will be required to function in a flexible and collegial manner. MIE retains the right to assign new duties and/or to re-assign staff to other areas of the Institute, in response to service needs.
