A Panel of Childcare Workers in LYCS's Creche (Community Employment)

LYCS wishes to set up to recruit enthusiastic, positive and innovative applicants as part of our Community Employment Programme. The Childcare workers will work in the Crèche and Out of Schools programmes as part of a team to provide quality childcare. You will be involved in planning and delivering a programme of activity centred around the needs of the children. Applicants must be willing to train in Childcare and be available to work mornings and afternoons. All applicants must be eligible for Community Employment, so contact your local FAS office to confirm your eligibility. Hours of work will be 19.5 hrs each week.

The panel will be used to fill vacancies arising in 2010.
