The EU Aid Volunteers initiative provides opportunities to European citizens and long-term residents, from a wide range of backgrounds and with a diversity of skills and professional experience, to get involved in humanitarian aid projects, support the provision of needs-based humanitarian aid in third countries and engage in volunteering opportunities, through deployment.

Concern in Sierra Leone is working on The Lanin Biznes education project which is funded by Irish Aid, the TK Foundation and David Barker. It is implemented in partnership with the local organisation Pikin-to-Pikin in five chiefdoms in Tonkolili District, targeting 28 primary schools. The overall objective of the project is to increase access to, and completion of, quality primary education.

Concern Sierra Leone is looking for a senior EU Aid Volunteer with experience in teaching / education programmes to support the implementation, monitoring and documentation of the Safe Learning

Model (SLM) project in Sierra Leone. The role will see the volunteer facilitate training of Concern's learning coaches, Concern's partner Pikin to Pikin (P2P) staff, Ministry of Education and Science and Technology supervisors and school cluster supervisors. To support in the review of training materials and adaptation of piloted manuals for use in training of teachers and School Management Committees. To contribute in strengthening the Safe Learning Model (SLM) field team in the implementation of SLM projects in an integrated manner. Support collaborative engagement of P2P with Concern as a team and strengthening the connection between the Safe Learning Model national and international research teams with the project implementation team.
