POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

Cistercian College Roscrea is in the trusteeship of the Cistercian Monks of Mount St. Joseph Abbey, Roscrea. For over 100 years, in its pastoral setting, the College has offered 7-day boarding education for boys in accordance with the Benedictine/Cistercian tradition. From September 2017 the College will be expanding its education provision by incorporating 5 Day and Day Boarding.

The College's traditional capacity to meet the individual needs of its students has long been recognised, valuing personal development, academic excellence, individual and team sporting achievement and the performing arts. Cistercian College Roscrea aims to be a leading Catholic educator in the Cistercian/Benedictine tradition, developing self-acting, hard-working young men of integrity who are resilient, motivated, empathetic and conscientious in their pursuit of excellence.

The College motto 'Insideat coelis animo sed corpore terris' invites staff and students to strive always for the higher things, while remaining conscious of earthly matters. As a monastic school, Cistercian College Roscrea aims to nurture all students in a holistic and balanced educational environment where they are each encouraged and guided to reach their full potential.

The College are seeking individuals for the role of Teacher who work closely with our student body in a residential setting, caring and supporting the students in study and the College environment

These positions will present an opportunity for an individual with energy, enthusiasm and a natural ability to work with young people in a student centred academic and pastoral environment. Willingness to get involved with extra-curricular activities as well as taking an active interest in daily College life is essential. The position is a privately paid post.

Interested candidates should email the College President/Principal at brendan.feehan@ccr.ie for an application form.

Closing date for completed application forms is 5pm on July 27th 2017.
